

Day 5

Plymouth

Today we finally went to the city where the story of our English book takes place - Plymouth !

We started our day with a bus ride to the National Marine Aquarium in Plymouth. On our way there, we saw the River Plym. It was low tide at that moment. The water had gone back so far that you could see the sandbanks. When we arrived at the aquarium, we looked around. There were many interesting fish and other sea animals. We also went to a shark show, where we learned something about the animals that live in the tank. Some people even bought something in the shop! Even Mr. Adam couldn't resist buying a pink narwhal.

After that, we had a rally, where we did different tasks. We saw sights like the Smeaton's Tower or the Elizabethan House. We also went to the lido and had to imitate Silky (the seal from our English book)

All in all, we had a very nice and funny day. We were very grateful to be there. We want to say thanks to everyone, who helped to organize the trip and of course to our parents.

Tia, Gwen and Ava

